

We are so excited to share the details of the 2027 Roc Home and Garden Show and Sale with you! With expanded marketing projects, increased attendance incentives, and enhanced exhibitor perks, we're focused on delivering more value than ever before. The 2027 show is designed to be bigger, stronger, and more impactful, helping you generate more visibility, more leads, and better results. To support these improvements, we've made strategic investments in growing the show and have updated our booth pricing to be more consistent and equitable.

2027 Food Exhibitor Pricing

Tier 1 – $175

- 10x10 booth space
- Minimal or no electrical needs
- No health permit required
- (Reduced from last year)

Tier 2 – $300

- 10x10 booth space
- Electricity beyond standard requirements and/or health permit required
- Electricity costs included in pricing

Tier 3 – Custom Pricing

- Booth sizes larger than 10x10
- Electricity beyond standard requirements and/or health permit required
- Pricing based on booth size, setup, and electrical usage

With new management at the Convention Center, all food vendor policies and venue regulations will be strictly enforced this year.

All participating vendors will be required to:

- Submit a full list of all sampled/distributed items
- Follow all Convention Center food and safety guidelines
- Submit a Certificate of Insurance (COI) and any required health permits by January 15, 2027

Failure to submit required documentation by January 15 may result in the loss of booth space.

Additionally, any vendor found distributing unapproved food items or violating venue food policies may be subject to fines and removal from future events.

Booth placements will be assigned by show management based on layout and electrical accessibility needs.
